-All entries must be filled out, including the animal's name and name of rider, and be signed.

-The stalls will be allotted on a first come first serve basis. NO RESERVATIONS.

-Only one entry form is to be used for each exhibitor.

-Exhibitors may bring in animals after 8:00 p.m. Saturday night.

-Exhibitors may pick up their show ring number(s) or make any entry changes on the morning of Sunday, August 31, 2025, 8:30 a.m. to 11am in the designated registration area.

-All horses and ponies are subject to measurement which will be made in accordance with the C.E.F. rules and regulations.

-Stallions are not eligible in any Novice classes.

-All exhibitors and attendants must be neatly and appropriately attired upon entering the ring.

-Each exhibitor is subject to and should be familiar with the by-laws of the Pontiac Agricultural Society, which are found in this book and with all the horsemen rules found at the beginning of the horse section.

- An unruly horse will be expelled from the fair grounds.

-Any exhibitor who attempts to harm another in any way risks losing the prizes won.

-If an exhibitor or judge violates a rule and the majority rule of the members of the Ringmasters Committee deem the violation serious enough to warrant a sanction, an investigation will be initiated immediately. If the alleged facts are found to be true, this could result in the revocation of the right to participate in the exhibition and immediate notification to the Canadian Equestrian Federation.

-If the identity of a horse is deliberately falsified in any way, the exhibitor will forfeit all prizes won and sanctions will be taken by the Canadian Equestrian Federation. The Equestrian Committee will be responsible for uncovering any attempts at dishonesty even before complaints are made.

-Horses must be presented without artificial devices except as permitted by the laws and regulations of the Canadian Equestrian Federation.

-In the event that the director of the equestrian committee is notified, in writing, that an exhibitor has presented his or her animal(s) under the influence of banned products during competitions, the exhibitor will be deprived of the right to participate in the Shawville show and the prizes won will be withdrawn. The decision to this effect will be taken by the President of the Equestrian Committee. This regulation will be strictly enforced.

-Cruelty to animals will not be tolerated and will result in disqualification.

-All complaints must be reported to the Director on the day of the exhibition. The Director's decision shall be final and binding.

-Exhibitors must remain on the exhibition grounds until the end of the competitions.

-The Pontiac Agricultural Society cannot be held responsible for any transmission of diseases between animals.

-One of the conditions of registration is that each exhibitor cannot hold the Pontiac Agricultural Society and its Directors responsible for any accident or loss.

-Another condition of registration is that each exhibitor is held responsible for any accident or damage that may be caused to a person or equipment.

-Children 6 years old or younger must be accompanied by an adult to be admitted to the stables.

-Dogs are not allowed. Apart from service animals.

-During the presentation of the various animal competitions (cows, oxen, horses, etc.), the presenters and their assistants will have to wear an exclusive bracelet. Security guards will only allow access to the rear area of the presentation site to those with this wristband. The exclusive wristband will be distributed by the director responsible for these competitions.

-Working trailers may only be parked in the area designated by the Director. Trailer space will be allocated on a first come, first served basis.

-Parking Passes are allotted as: helper – 1 pass for 4 or more horses; vehicle – 1 pass for 4 horses, maximum of 2, the second vehicle must park off-site. Passes will be distributed after animals have been checked in by the Director.
